

...h side of the Guyandotte River, near Logan, Va. The prisoners were served raw pumpkins,
...that was all. The soldiers and prisoners were exhausted after a hard days march. Under
...full moon, while the soldiers were fast asleep, Zack organized an escape party, and released
...all the prisoners in the stockade, except those who were ill or too weak to walk. They ...built a raft and escaped to the opposite shore. Reportedly, Zack returned to his father's ...farm on Bearwallow Ridge. A short time later he enlisted as a Private with a Union militia
...unit. Because he had five children he was discharged after only a few months service.
...It is believed that George Webb switched sides because of the of the destruction of his ...property by the Quantrell Raiders unit. He enlisted as a Private with Captain Thomas
...Jeffrey's Company, 100th W.Va. Troops (Union). He appeared on a Company Muster Roll, dated
...Dec. 24, 1862, as did his son-in-law, James Matison Workman, husband of George's daughter,
...Nancy Elizabeth (Webb)Workman, born in 1828. Another daughter, Martha "Patsy" Webb, born in
...1832, married James C. Smith. On Sept. 21, 1861 he was sworn into service by the Governor
...of Virginia, with Company C, 151st Virginia Militia, CSA, at Princeton, Va. James' son,
...Hallard Preston Smith, born in 1841, was also listed as a Private on the roster of his father's ...company. Family tradition has indicated that "Press" Smith saved his father's life during
...a skirmish with enemy soldiers. Another daughter of George Webb, Serilda Webb, born 1820,
...married Raymond Thaxton Workman. He, reportedly, served in the Civil War. His involvement
...is unknown. Civil War service for George Webb's other sons: Josiah, John, William and
...Calvin is also unknown.

After the war, Captain George Washington Webb, USA, reportedly, moved to Tennessee where he ...married, raised a family and lived until his death. Zack Webb moved his family from Wyoming
...Co. to Wayne Co. It was a hazardous trip for Zack because he had to travel through Oceana, a ...local strong hold during the war. Local citizens had remembered his changing sides during the ...war. He was threatened to shoot him, if located. His brother, Ed in his Confederate
...uniform, had saved his brother's life. He led the wagons with the women and children, and
...the family's livestock to Wayne Co. and safety. Zack and the men of his family walked the ...road through the area of Rebel sympathizers. Apparently the wounds of the war were healed in
...Wayne Co. The families of Ed and Zack were living side-by-side on the Lincoln-Wayne County border, and were partners in a sawmill operation. There seemed to be no bitterness between these brothers who had served on opposite sides during the war. Reportedly, James Smith did not survive the war. His son, Ballard P. Smith settled in Nicholas County. Descendants today can be found throughout that county and the surrounding area. In Pocahontas County and adjoining counties can be found quite a few descendants of Edward Webb and James Matison Workman. Some of the surnames include: Webb, Workman, George, Burns, Smith, Ross, Green, Lane, Bailey, and others.

MY WEBB FAMILY DURING THE CIVIL WAR - A FAMILY DIVIDED

The Civil War divided quite a few West Virginia families. Some family members sided with the Union, others with the Confederacy, while others tried to remain neutral. My G-G-G grandfather, George Webb, born in 1795, lived on a farm on Bearwallow Ridge, Wyoming Co., Va. (now W. Va.) when the war started. Today, this farm is located just east of Twin Falls State Park, Mabon, W. Va. George had a daughter, Rhoda Webb, born about 1813, by a Cherokee. Rhoda married a Cherokee "Medicine Man" who took the name John Webb. They had a son, John Webb, born in 1837. He, reportedly, served as a Private with the Union Army. George Webb married Elizabeth (Keller) Ferdue in 1817. Probably their oldest son, George Washington Webb, born before 1820, reportedly, served as a Captain in a Union cavalry unit. Another son, my G-G grandfather, Edward Perry Webb, born in 1827, served as a Private with Company B, 4th Battalion, Virginia Cavalry. Family tradition has indicated that George met his brother Ed on patrol one moonlit night in the Shenandoah Valley. Ed and his companions, after hearing horsemen approaching, hid behind a stone fence. The horsemen stopped at a crossroad on the other side of the fence and conferred as to which road to take. Ed recognized his brother's voice and, reportedly called out, "Is that you Captain Webb?" George replied, "Is that you Edward Perry?" After a pause the Captain said, "Jack is coming (i.e. Stonewall Jackson), let's get out of here." Ed's service record reported his enlistment as a Private with Captain Du'f'eld's Company, Sept. 1, 1861, Hillsboro, Pocahontas Co., Va. He reenlisted for three years additional service on Oct. 10, 1864 at Luray, Va. His battalion participated in the Battle of Gettysburg on July 3, 1863. Ed's participation in this battle has not been verified.

Zechariah Taylor Webb, born 1835, youngest son of George Webb, enlisted as a Private with a Confederate militia unit. He observed the execution of several boys without trial. This upset him so much that he returned home to Bearwallow Ridge. Shortly thereafter a unit of Union soldiers came looking for him. It was a sad day for the Webb family. The Captain, a Union soldier, took him and ordered his father George to be taken also. George's wife, Elizabeth, pleaded with the Captain to free her husband, promising the soldiers a cocked hat if they would not take George. The Captain agreed, ate the meal and departed with Zach. Elizabeth was left desolate. Zach and other prisoners were taken to a stockade on the

McGuire

The two sons of James Waugh 1 married McGuires, Rebecca and Ann. where did they come from? In Price's History of Pocahontas County there is mention of only one person of this name (Page 363, Elizabeth Brown married a Mr. McGuire, and lived in Nicholas). I believe the following to be near the truth:

In Captain John Gibson's troops of the western department of Pennsylvania, who saw service during the campaign of the Great Kanawha, which gathered at the Levels of Greenbrier, were two McGuire's, James and Andrew. Perhaps one of these, or both, were impressed by the green river and hills and striking up a friendship with James Waugh or some other member of the expedition, decided to settle up the Greenbrier and did so, after the war. Their children may have been our Ann and Rebecca. However, they may have moved to Augusta County at the close of the War of Independence.

We do have a record of the following McGuire's who served in the Revolutionary War; from Virginia and entitled to land grants were: Andrew McGuire, Private; Dennis McGuire, Private; Conner McGuire, Private; Matthew McGuire, Private; William McGuire, Lieutenant. From Pennsylvania also receiving land grants from the new United States Government were: Patrick McGuire, Private; Mathew McGuire, Lieutenant; Perry McGuire, Lieutenant from South Carolina; Andrew McGuire, Private; Thomas and Daniel McGuire, Privates (brothers); James McGuire, Private; Bartholomew McGuire, Private; William McGuire, Private. It is safe to assume that from one of these McGuire's came the two who became the daughters-in law of James I and therefore the entire Waugh clan as we know it from then on down to the present time.

JAMES WAUGH • SOLDIER.

James Waugh the first, who served in the Continental Army, from 1777 to 1780, was wounded during the battle of Brandywine, Delaware. This wound which was in his upper leg did not affect his serving out his enlistment in the Army.

The Battle of Brandywine, Delaware, took place on 11 September 1777. The two opposing Generals were: Lord Cornwallis on the British side, commanding British and German troops, and the American Commander-in-Chief, General George Washington.

The French General Lafayette received his first wound during this battle while fighting for America.

Lord Cornwallis was the victor in this engagement, with the following losses:

American,	300 killed
	800 wounded
	400 prisoners.

British	100 killed
	400 wounded.

Evaline Weugh married Washington McNeel of the Levels, on January 23 1851. Washington McNeill died on 17 Feb. 1864. They were the parents of six children: Rachel, Clarisse, Mattie, Nan, Joseph B. McNeill of Duck's Run and Rev. John W. McNeill, a minister of the Baltimore Conference.

Evaline Waugh McNeill next married John Moore who died soon after. Her third marriage was with Yuan Johnson.

Samuel Waugh died in early manhood, while preparing for the ministry.

Clarisse Waugh was married to Levi Beverago on 22 Sept. 1859. Died 10 Nov. 1861. They must have had one child, a daughter. The records show a Victoria Beverage, she died 23 Feb. 1862.

Levi Waugh married Amanda Francos Poege 24 Dec. 1867, Amanda was born 8 Mar. 1850 and died 26 July 1882. She was a daughter of James Rankin Poage. Levi and Amanda had six children, two sons and four daughters. Levi Waugh's second wife was Ella J. Ruckman in January 1884; she had three children, two daughters and one son. Levi Waugh's family will be described later.

Beverly Waugh married Ella Gabbert 28 June 1862 and she died 30 Apr. 1863. (There is on record the death of Elle Florence Waugh on 10 Dec. 1882 and it must be assumed that she was the daughter of Beverly's first marriage). Beverly's second marriage was to Harriet Cunningham on 27 May 1869. Details of their marriage and children will be given later.

Miriam Waugh was married to Richard Mayes on 4 Sept. 1870. They had eight children as follows: Mary, Andrew, Lila, John, Henry, Charlie, Levi, and Alva. Lila married a Towson; Alva went to Oklahoma; Charlie was killed in Richmond, West Virginia; Mary married George W. Duncan and had three children, William, George (Jack) and Harper Lee, also Marie.

Ann Waugh---Or Mary Ann--- as she was called, married a Potts and lived most of her life in Elkins, West Virginia. They had two children Maggie and George. (Forrest) Ann Potts died in 1927.

Silaa Waugh died 11 Sept. 1864, aged eighteen

Nancy Waugh died 7 Oct. 1864, aged sixteen.

George Waugh died 14 Feb. 1861, aged ten.

NOTE: The above three children of Rev. John Waugh all died during the Civil War during a diphtheria epidemic.

John Waugh married Amanda Waugh 31 Dec. 1879. They were the parents of four children as follows:

Robert Waugh never married. From exposure on damp ground he contracted a rheumatic affection that disabled him for manual labor. He became a school teacher. Robert seems to have been gifted with fine oratorical powers, for it is said that no person could beat him speaking when he got warmed up—on any subject. He died comparatively young at the old homestead. In his lonely grave amid the Hills a tongue is silent that may have enraptured listening audiences and secured for Robert an illustrious name.

William Waugh married Martha Brown, born 11 Feb. 1808, daughter of Josiah Brown, near Indian Draft. She was the sister of Jacob Waugh's wife. Jacob being his first cousin. William and Martha were the parents of ten children. They first settled in Upshur County, thence went to Iowa, and afterwards moved to Missouri. William Waugh was struck by a train in 1894 and died in forty minutes. He was 84 years old when he died.

Margaret Waugh was married to Samuel Martin. They first settled in Upshur County, then moved to Iowa.

Mary Ann Waugh married Reuben Buzzard, Jr., and lived near the old Buzzard place at Glade Hill. Afterwards Mr. Buzzard purchased Dilley's Mill and lived there a considerable while, then moved to Iowa. They were the parents of four children—Arthelia, Rachel, Samuel and Adolphus. Samuel was a prominent physician in Lucas County, Iowa.

Alexander Sinclair Waugh married Annie Cochran, of the Levels, and settled in Nicholas County.

Arthur Waugh went ~~west~~ in early manhood to Kanawha, where he married Henrietta Boswell and settled there.

Jacob Waugh married Sarah Ann Gay, youngest daughter of the late Samuel M. Gay, near Marlinton, and first settled at the Waugh homestead. They lived a while in Barbour County. Jacob then returned to Pocahontas County and took charge of the Bufffield Mill, near Edray, where he died. J. S. Waugh, his son, operated the mill after the death of his father.

Andrew Waugh, nodato, lived to be 46 years old.

Rachel Jane Waugh died at the age of nineteen.

Beverly Hugh Waugh, the youngest of the large family, married Martha Ann Bradshaw, daughter of William Bradshaw, on Brown's Creek. He lived many years on the place that was later occupied by his cousin, Robert Shrader. Mr. Beverly Hugh Waugh was an estimable man. He led the Mount Zion class for sixteen years, and yielded the position to the regret of his christian brethren when it became necessary to change homes. He then moved to the Levels. He left an honorable reputation as a gentleman and a christian. Miss Lizzie S. Waugh visited her Aunt Martha at Academy (now Hillboro) in November 1892.

Rev. John Waugh was born 19 June 1805. On 17 November 1831 he was married to Martha Moore, who was born 22 February 1811. They had eleven children, six sons, and five daughters. They built their home on Indian Draft, near Edray.

His children of John and Martha Waugh:

Leah Ann	born	2 October 1832	died	11 December 1860
Samuel	"	26 July 1834	"	11 January 1862
Marissa	"	30 March 1836	"	10 November 1861

Upon his marriage, Samuel and Ann settled in the Hills country, on the old homestead, now called the Shrader place. Samuel Waugh's family are listed in the first 150 groups in Pocahontas County.

Elizabeth waugh was married to Cabel Knapp, and first settled in Greenbrier County, lived a while on Knapps Creek, then settled on the Greenbrier River, known as the Knapp place. We know they had at least seven children: Ann, Nancy, Eleanor, Margaret, Elizabeth, R. W., and A. J. Knapp.

Ann Knapp married Richard B. Weir and lived near Verdant Valley.

Nancy Knapp married Henry Shrader and lived several years in Huntersville, where Mr. Shrader operated a tannory, and finally settled on the Waugh homestead. They had eleven children as follows: Mary, B. Franklin, R. C., John, Jacob, Luther, Ellen Susan, Enoch, William, Charles and Margaret Ann.

Mary was married to William Fertig of Huntersville, lived on Anthony's Creek, then at Dilleys Mill. Mr. Fertig was a saddler by trade, then a merchant, was a member of the Pocahontas Court, finally moved to a farm in Greenbrier County.

B. Franklin Shrader died in the war. He was in Company I, 25th Regiment Virginia Infantry. His cousin, Levi Waugh, was also in this company.

R. C. Shrader married a daughter of James Lewis of the Levels and lived on part of the Waugh homestead.

John Shrader married a daughter of Nicholas Stulting and lived on part of the Waugh homestead.

Jacob Shrader married a daughter of David Kincaid in Highland County and lived near Dilly's Mill.

Luther Shrader married a sister of Jacob's wife and lived in Greenbrier County.

Ellen Susan Shrader married ~~Robert Sharp~~ Osear Sharp, a Methodist minister and lived at Frost.

There is no data on the lives of Enoch, William, Charles and Margaret Ann Shrader.

Eleanor Knapp married Snmpson Buzzard.

Elizabeth Knapp married Peter Shrader.

Margaret Knapp married McCoy Malcomb and had two sons, John And Thomas. R. W. Knapp lived in Tucker County.

A. J. Knapp went to Missouri.

Rebecca Waugh married Andrew Moore and for some years lived near Frost, then at the head of Stony Creek, and finally her family moved to Jackson County. Rebecca and Andrew were married 13 Aug. 1829.

Samuel Waugh, Jr. was the first grammar scholar of Captain Young, who owned a school on Stony Creek, near George Baxter's place. Samuel moved to Missouri in his early manhood and married Mary Canterbury.

Miss Susie McCarty and her brothers, James H. and Thomas, teachers in the public schools, are the grandchildren of Jacob McCarty. Their parents Samuel and Elizabeth McCarty of Bruffey's Creek.

Martha (Waugh) McCarty, no data on this granddaughter of James Waugh, the first.

Thus far we have covered two children of James Waugh the first. James the 2nd and one of his two daughters Jane, who married the above McCarty. It is my belief that his second daughter was the Elizabeth Waugh (unmarried) who died in 1996. This the remaining son is Samuel Waugh, my great-great-grand-father. Of this branch of the Waugh family it is my good fortune to have the dates of births, deaths and marriages for three generations. Will now try to set down all that I have about Samuel Waugh, youngest son of James the First.

SAMUEL WAUGH AND ANN McGUIRE, HIS WIFE.

Samuel Waugh, was born 10 June 1774, and died 2 July 1831.
Ann McGuire, was born 20 Oct. 1779, and died 19 Aug. 1847.

Samuel and Ann were married on 19 Jan. 1802 and had fourteen children, nine sons and five daughters.

Samuel Waugh and his wife Ann, imbued with the faith and energy so peculiar to the genuine Scotch-Irish, endured all that is implied in rearing a family of fourteen sons and daughters, and all living to be adults. The sons all lived to be grown, and not one was ever known to use tobacco or ardent spirits in any form. Samuel Waugh was one of the original members of the old Mount Zion Church- one of the strong holds of its denomination for so many years. His history shows that in the face of pioneer hindrances and privations sons and daughters may be reared that may faithfully serve God and support their country in their day and generation.

(From Price's History of Pocahontas County, Page 1404)

Jane Waugh, sister of Samuel Waugh of the Hills, was the second wife of Timothy McCarty. His first wife died after bearing him seven sons. Timothy McCarty and Jane Waugh had thirteen children, the names of but nine being known. They are:

Eli	Mary
Reuben	Nancy
Samuel	Martha
Jacob	Sally
	Jane

Of these nine children of Jane McCarty we have the following: Nancy married Robert McClary, a saddler of Millpoint and went to Ohio. Jane married Harvey Casebolt and moved to the western part of the state. Sally married Ezekiel Boggs in Greenbrier County.

Eli married Margaret Moore and lived at the head of Stony Creek. His daughter Jane was married to John Simmons and had seven children, viz, Robert, Amanda, Margaret, Calvin, Milton, Warwick, and Nancy.

Reuben McCarty never married.

Samuel Waugh McCarty married Phoebe Moore, and had six children:—James, Margaret, William, Elizabeth and Peter.

James McCarty went to Ohio, married Mary Haddon, and thence to Minnesota; his second marriage was with Melissa Overly.

George McCarty, a Union soldier, Company I, 3rd West Virginia Cavalry was killed at the battle of Winchester under Sheridan.

William McCarty, a Union soldier, Company A, 10th West Virginia Regiment died in 1861 at home.

Margaret McCarty married James Curry and moved to Kansas.

Elizabeth McCarty, a life long invalid, died at an advanced age.

Peter McCarty, a Union veteran, Company I, 3rd West Virginia Cavalry married Arminia Hill, and lived near Dilley's Mill. The names of his children are; James William, Louisa Francis, Amos Hodrick, Albert Granville, Carrie Virginia and Mary Price.

Jacob, son of Timothy McCarty and Jane Waugh McCarty, was a member of the West Virginia legislature in the reconstruction period. His first marriage was with Annie Boggs of Greenbrier, and lived on Droop Mountain. There were six children, Samuel, Elizabeth, Mahala, Melissa, Julia and Franklin. Mary McCarty was the second wife of the first married Stephen Hadden. Both of the above moved to Iowa. Mrs. Mary Jane Moore lived with her daughter Mrs. Matilda Moore, near Mt. Zion Church. George Moore, the youngest son died at the home of his half-sister, Mrs. Rebecca Irvine, on Back Creek in the 1840's.

Jacob (Waugh) McCarty's second marriage was to Hannah Brook, of Droop Mountain. There were two children by this marriage—George and Fanny. George McCarty lived on the homestead on Droop Mountain.

that position for many years. Jacob Waugh's five children were, four boys, Brown, Enoch, Homer and John William. One daughter Leah who was the third wife of Dr. Pleasant Smith of Edray. His wife, Mary Brown was born 13 April 1812.

James Waugh 3rd married Sally, the oldest daughter of John Cochran, and lived on the Greenbrier at the old homestead. His second wife was Hannah Lamb, from Highland County. Details of James Waugh will be found in Hardesty's Encyclopedia.

Morgan Waugh went to Kanawha County.

Allan Waugh settled in Missouri.

Isabella Waugh married John Brock and settled in Kanawha County.

Marcus Waugh, the youngest son, married Susan Johnson. They settled down on a farm adjoining the Waugh homestead higher up the river a few miles east of Poage's Lane.

Lorenzo Waugh, the most noted son of James Waugh 2nd, lived a very eventful life. His autobiography was published in San Francisco upon his death there in 1899; he was born in 1808. Some events of his life will be set down here. He wrote several books that had wide church distribution.

He wrote the following in the biography of his life; "There was one man in our neighborhood who was called rich, having, I think, over a hundred slaves, and I wish to mention him as he and his family were real friends to me—Father Jacob Warwick. His daughter Betsy (Elizabeth Warwick who married Col. Woods) used to come to our house and give me lessons, and with her I learned to read and write before I ever went a day to school."

Once in his youth, Lorenzo, was at a house raising in the vicinity of Cloverlick, and won a footrace against another youth—disliked by Mr. Warwick. The outcome of the race so pleased Mr. Warwick that he gave young Lorenzo a fine young mare. During the greater part of his circuit riding days he used horses that were the offspring of the colts he had received from Mr. Warwick.

The turning point in Lorenzo Waugh's life was seeing a statement in a newspaper that a man in a distant place was willing to assist some boy in getting an education to prepare him for the ministry. He answered the letter and was told that the place had been given another boy, but the germ had been sown. He left home and went to Harrison County and proceeded to carry out his plan on his own resources. He worked for his board and went to school. And he had not been there long until the teacher was discharged for drunkenness and Lorenzo Waugh was selected to take his place. From that time on he was engaged in professional duties as a teacher, preacher, missionary and author.

He was sixteen when he was a teacher in Harrison County. He was a teacher in Mason County in 1831, entered the Methodist ministry in that year, and was junior preacher on the Guyandotte circuit. In 1833 he rode the Nicholas County circuit, and was transferred to the Ohio Conference in 1834. In 1835 he became a member of the Missouri Conference. On one of his Missouri circuits he met Miss Clarissa Jane Ewell, and they were married. In 1837 Lorenzo Waugh was an Indian missionary to the Shawnee Nation. In 1840 he rode the Platte River circuit, now in Nebraska, and in 1848 he entered the Illinois Conference. In 1853 with his family he crossed the plains and settled in the Petaluma Valley, in California, where he resided until his death.

enraged James' grandson or son to the point where he took the above action such as a person might nowadays take by being naturalized. Should one of the above Marys had been the wife of James Waugh the first, I am sure there is no one living today that would take offense to the fact.

The Warwicks and Waughs were friends throughout their lives and in the following pages there are many times when they came in close contact with their daily doings. James Waugh came to what is now Pocahontas County unmarried, he may have sought counsel from Captain Warwick, married one of the Marys above and settled near Cloverlick close to his friend.

NOTE: Should any one have another suggestion about this would be more than glad to hear from them./glv

James Waugh, 1st, and his wife Mary were the parents of four children of which we have data on three, James Waugh 2nd, the oldest son, Samuel the youngest son and Jane Waugh, who was Timothy McCarty's second wife. There is nothing on record as to the date of James' birth, but he died in 1831, the same year his brother Samuel died.

James Waugh 2nd, was married to Rebecca McGuire, they were the parents of twelve children. The following ten children are all that we have data on at the present time. Their names are:

Rachel
Elizabeth
Nancy
James 3rd
Jacob

Morgan
Allen
Isabella
Marcus
Lorenzo

About the life of James Waugh 2nd, have uncovered the following: He lived on the Greenbrader River and evidently had a smaller farm in the Hills, the land along the river must have been part of his father's land and he called this The Plantation. His will was probated in Augusta County court in 1831, in which he provides: "That land be sold and the proceeds used to educate his children." Another clause in his will was, "I desire that my rifle gun be kept for the entire use of my plantation."

He was a member of the first court to sit in Pocahontas county and his presence at the August term of court in 1822 bears this out. He was a close neighbor and friend of Major Jacob Warwick, of Cloverlick. It was on evidence of James Waugh and P. Bruffey who appeared in court that a section of Jacob Warwick's will was carried out freeing his famous servant Ben. Warwick's will was dated 7 March 1818.

In 1800 the records show about 150 families living in Pocahontas County, Samuel and James Waugh 2nd being two of them.

CHILDREN OF JAMES WAUGH 2nd.

Rachel was married to Frederick Fleming.

Creek.

Elizabeth was married to John Ratliffe and lived on Clover

Nancy married Abraham Griffin and lived on Buckloy Mountain, she had a daughter who married Claiborne McNeill, and lived near Buckeye.

Jacob (Grandfather of Judge Wough of Upshur County) married Mary Brown, daughter of Josiah Brown of Indian Draft, and moved to Upshur County. He was the father of fifteen children, only five lived to be grown. Jacob was a fine penman and became clerk of the Upshur County Court, occupying or he could have been his brother. We do know that there was a James Waugh in Lewis' army at Point Pleasant, and it is probably the same James Waugh I (to us) who went on to the war for Independence. His childrens age and dates of birth will give some light on this subject as their ages are spaced to conform with his military life.

James Waugh enlisted for three years in the Revolution, 1777-1780. He survived the conflict, for he and his wife were defendants in a lawsuit brought in the year 1780, a fact that is established by the records of the county courts of Augusta County. At the date of his enlistment he was a married man with four children. As such he was entitled to an appropriation from the county funds, 16 December 1777, his wife being allowed the sum of twenty-five pounds, 17 November 1778 she was again allowed the sum of twenty-five pounds, 17 November 1779 she was allowed the sum of sixty pounds.

* About his four children it must be assumed that there were two girls and two boys. The two boys James II, and Samuel remaining home and raising their own family.

At this time James Waugh I, was living in Augusta County, at some place near Cloverlick, now Pocahontas County, West Virginia. It is believed he lived about four miles below Cloverlick, or it could have been in the Hills on the trail between Jacksons River and Cloverlick. Any way we do know that James Waugh I settled in this general vicinity.

* Recent data found on James the first, his children, James 2nd, Samuel and Jane. There is a probability that his other daughters name was Elizabeth.

James Waugh, the first, as we know had four children, two of them being boys, James II and Samuel. His wife was named Mary. We know nothing about Mary, and there has never been anything mentioned about her family name. After searching the records I have come up with only two Marys from this vicinity, as follows: (I merely add the following for what it is worth).

20 May 1761, Augusta County parish Vestry Book, page 332, an orphan, Mary Garvin, is bound to Andrew Sittlington and his wife. The record shows him living on the Greenbrier near the Warwicks. Orphans during this period were bound out when there were no relatives to take care of them. Today this practice is known as adoption.

On 17 Feb. 1762, at a County Court of Augusta County, the following order was made. Ordered that the following orphans be bound out, William Meek to William Warwick, Mary Meek to Andrew Sittlington Margaret to James Walker: James Meek to William Wilson; Jane Meek to Moses Moore. ( All these given names appear again in the names of Samuel and Ann Waugh's children).

There is on record another Mary, eligible inasmuch as she had some land, protected by court order. She was Mary Gregory, widow of Nathaniel Gregory, who died about 1762. On August 18 1762 is wife Mary, qualified as Administratrix of her deceased husband Nathaniel Gregory, she left a son James Gregory, part of the land.

We do know that one of James Waugh's son or grandchild was before the County Court of Augusta County with proof and posted bond that the Waugh's had paid their own passage from Europe to Philadelphia. There is no mention as to why this Waugh was not when he arrived in this country. No doubt they had in those times they had words such as bound, servants etc., such as schoolboys now use: I work, I livey etc. This probably NOTE: The long campaign cannot be told here. After Cor. a defeat and death at Point Pleasant on 10 October 1774, Logan's capture, etc. All close with Logan's speech, which has been verified from Affidavits of Andrew Rodgers, William Russell and others who were present. It is a classic in frontier oratory, All were greatly impressed by the chieftain's eloquence, command of word, his clear distinct voice, his peculiar emphasis and his singularly grand and majestic, and yet graceful bearing. They afterwards said that his oratory fully equalled that of Patrick Henry himself. It should be given a more public place in American history.

LOGAN'S SPEECH: " I appeal to any white man to say if ever he entered Logan's cabin hungry and he gave him not meat; if ever he came cold and naked and he clothed him not? During the course of the last long and bloody war, Logan remained idle in his camp, an advocate for peace, Such was my love for the whites that my countrymen pointed as I passed and said, ' Logan the friend of the white man'. I had even thought to have lived with you, but for the injuries of one man. Colonel Cresap, the last spring, in cold blood and unprovoked, murdered all the relations of Logan, not even sparing my women and children. There runs not a drop of blood in the veins of any living creature. This called on me for revenge. I have sought it. I have killed many. I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country I rejoice at the beams of peace; but do not harbor a thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. He will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

With Logan's speech, it is said that Lord Dunmore's war was over; it lasted less than six months, It is more than likely that when the colonies achieved their freedom they would have found their western boundary fixed at the Allegheny Mountains. Upon the return to their homes the backwoodsmen found the news from Congress then meeting in Philadelphia. Many went to the war of Independence and saw long service in the Continental Army. They were George Washington's, "MEN FROM WEST AUGUSTA".

THE WAUCHS OF POCAHONTAS COUNTY WEST VIRGINIA

In trying to write a clear, concise report on the Waugh clan prior to the establishment and known lives of James 1st and his wife Mary, is nothing but sheer guess work, but from the known records and early history and papers that cover the period 1700 to 1775 that are in existence today, the following will have to be assumed as reasonably correct in a fictional way.

The Scotch-Irish started arriving in the new world about 1700 but the larger ingress was from 1730 to 1750, this is established fact. Elsewhere in this paper you have read about these people; how and why they came to America, and where they settled.

From Philadelphia, where the Waugh's (and McGuire's) landed in this country---there is a direct path southward through Maryland and Virginia to Pocahontas County. There are two Waugh Chapels in Maryland which must have been started or inspired by people that gave their name to the chapel. In Virginia during the 1770's we find a Rev. Abner Waugh---who must have been a member of the same clan as ours. His father must have settled near there. Perhaps he was a brother or other kinsman of Captain George Waugh, Revolutionary war officer, who may have been the father of James. - or it may have been William Waugh who served under Captain Robert Adams---was the father of James!

Dear Pocahontas Historical Society,

I wanted to write a separate letter concerning the McGuire and Waugh families. This information may be of some interest to Anne B. Denison Fisher or George Beard Vaughn who wrote the sketch on Levi Waugh's first and second family in your book.

Levi Waugh's grandfather Samuel Waugh was married to Ann McGuire. Samuel's brother James Waugh Jr. was married to Rebecca McGuire both Samuel and James Jr. were sons of James Waugh the Scotch Irish immigrant and wife Mary who were into Pocahontas early. Samuel and James Jr. married McGuire sisters.

A Mason county WVA deed dated January 2, 1830 in Deed book G page 35 show Samuel Waugh and wife Ann Waugh (formerly McGuire) and James Waugh and wife Rebecca Waugh (formerly McGuire) as heirs of John McGuire Sr. deceased of Mason county WVA. Both Waugh families are listed as being of Pocahontas county.

A Mason county WVA deed dated April, 1825 in Deed book F page 245 show heirs of John McGuire Sr. deceased are selling property to Robert Barnett son of Mary McGuire (daughter of John McGuire Sr.) and William Barnett. Named in the 1825 deed as heirs of John McGuire Sr. are: Hugh McGuire and wife Elizabeth, Samuel McGuire and wife Eleanor, John Thornton and wife Rachel (formerly McGuire) and John McGuire Jr. and wife Nelly.

Therefore children of John McGuire Sr. are Mary, Hugh, Samuel, John Jr., Rachel, Ann and Rebecca. See Family Group record MRIN 711.

I do not have first hand knowledge of the Waugh family except for Ann and Rebecca's tie to John McGuire Sr. in Mason County. I have read Price's sketches on the Waugh family as well as what you have in your new book. The MRIN sheets that I have enclosed for Waugh are all from secondary sources such as Price.

However John McGuire Senior who died about 1825 in Mason County West Virginia was married to Elizabeth Cotel 14 July 1779 in Greenbrier/ Rockingham. This is given in the ministers return of Rev. John Alderson. Rev. John Alderson was the first Baptist preacher west of the Alleghenies according to Hardesty's Greenbrier sketch on page 175. It says Alderson was the pastor of the Lynnvile Baptist Church in Rockingham but visited Greenbrier as well. Also given in the ministers returns is a William McGuire who married Mary Shirley in 1778. No proof but perhaps a brother of John McGuire Sr.

Since both of John McGuire Sr.'s daughters Ann and Rebecca married the Waugh brothers and were of Pocahontas county I feel that John McGuire Sr. must have spent some time in Pocahontas co. before emigrating to Mason co. He sold property in Mason county in 1806. I do not know when nor how he obtained the property. I feel that he must have been in Pocahontas some time between 1779 when he married Elizabeth Cotel in Greenbrier/Rockingham and when he sold property in 1806 where it said he was of Mason county.

If you have any records that span these years I would appreciate knowledge of them so that I might check to see if John McGuire Sr. is listed there in.

I hope that you will file this in your families file under McGuire and Waugh. It may be of interest to others as well.

I am presently researching additional information on John McGuire Sr. and will be happy to correspond with anyone who has knowledge of the family or who wants to share McGuire information.

Sincerely,

Karen Blue Haley

POAGES

This is part of an article on the Poage family in Virginia. Two brothers, Robert and John "proved their importation at their own charges" at Orange Courthouse in 1740. The Pocahontas Porges are the descendants of Robert Poage, who settled between Staunton and Fort Defiance. His wife was Elizabeth Preston. An account of the Porges is given in Price's Historical Sketches of Pocahontas County," but this article gives some interesting information—From a Staunton Newspaper.

The Poage family was a prominent one in and near Staunton, Virginia, in the years following the arrival of the first members as pioneer settlers, two hundred and more years ago.

One of them, Colonel James Poage, left Staunton, went to Kentucky, and then to Ohio, where he founded a new town he called Staunton. Later the name was changed to Ripley. This caused us to do some personal research at this end of the line.

We visited the old and new cemeteries at Fort Defiance, both associated with Old Stone Presbyterian Church, to see how many readable stones marked the graves of members of the Poage family. We found, too, that occasionally the name was spelled Pogue.

As pointed out there are two cemeteries at Fort Defiance: The one near the church and a much older burial ground east of the present mans. Whether an early, from church once stood near the older cemetery is not known, but normally a cemetery usually was closely located in relation to the church.

In the older cemetery, which is enclosed with a sturdy stone wall and the graves within the enclosure well kept are several stones bearing the name Poage or Pogue. Some of these inscriptions include:

Our father, Major William Poage, born March 18, 1781, died September 23, 1855.

Thomas Poage, Captain, Anderson's Cumpaoy, Virginia, 1740-1803.

John Poage, member of Captain Doyle's Company, Fifth Virginia Regiment Wounded March 23, 1862, in the Battle of Kerns Towo, died March 26, 1862.

The most imposing stone, also erected in recent years, says:

Sacred to the memory of Robert Poage, immigrant from Ireland 1739, elder in Augusta Stone Church 1740; justice first commission of the peace Augusta County 1745; died in 1774; his wife, Elizabeth Preston.

In this old cemetery also is the grave of the Rev. John Craig, D. D. The inscription says: "Commencer of the Presbyterian ministerial in this place; 1740 to April 21, 1774; faithfully discharged his duties to the same".

Judge H. Roy Waugh

Copied from History of West Virginia, Old and New, and West Virginia Biography, by special staff of writers, The American Historical Society, Inc. Vol. iii, 1923.

*H. Roy Waugh, born in Upshur County, West Virginia, 4 January 1897, the son of Homer M. and Melissa J. (Morrison) Waugh, the former of whom was born 19 May 1854, the latter 14 August 1859.

Homer M. Waugh was born in Pocahontas County, this state, a son of James Waugh, whose father, James Waugh, Sr., immigrated from Scotland to America in 1739 and established his residence in Virginia. His son James married Sarah Rebecca McGuire, and the son Samuel married her sister, Ann McGuire. James was a patriot soldier in the War of the Revolution. Jacob Waugh, another of the sons was born in 1809 married Mary Brown, and they became the parents of thirteen children. Homer M. and Melissa J. Waugh became the parents of three children who attained to years of maturity and of the number Judge Waugh of this sketch is the eldest. Ica remains at the parental home. Joy is engaged in business activities at Clearfield, Pennsylvania. Judge Waugh was elected to the bench of the Circuit Court in November 1920, he was a member of the Republican Party. He and his wife belong to the Methodist Church, the Masons and the K of P lodge.

Judge H. Roy Waugh was married 17 October 1905 to Miss Louise P. Newlon, three children Mary, John and Helen.

NOTE: The above was furnished by Mr. Joseph W. Summers of 1130 Windson Ave., Morgantown, W. Va. under date of 21 January 1953. As it does not agree with the records now in my possession and all the writings and W. Va. Blue Book articles will have to gather more information and proof before accepting the above as being true. I. e. James Waugh the second, was but six or eight years old in 1776 and could not have been a soldier. However, his father, James Waugh, the 1st, was a soldier for three years, 1777-78-79, court records have proven this to be a fact. The father of James Waugh, the 1st, was either named John or James and came from Orange County, Virginia, to what is now Pocahontas County about 1765.

NOTE: I believe a line or two was omitted when the para. of H. Roy Waugh was copied. He ran for Governor of West Virginia, lost by a few hundred in the primary in the 1920's./glv

I would like to see them.

TI thought I would have been down there before this time; I intended to come to Aunt Martha's Saturday, but it was so rainy and cold I did not go.

Well, I suppose I will have to close as I have run out of news. The election and politics is about all the talk up here, now.

I suppose to-morrow will settle the question. I suppose you and Aunt Marthy are getting along very well. , If you are you had better stay with her, the girls are getting along well.

Mr. Mathews commenced his school at the Draft this morning, Lula, Mattie & Sallie started. I felt like crying becauss Miss Lena did not get the school.

Well, I will close for this time; give my love to all the pretty girls you see, and ugly ones too. Don't let anybody see this scribbled up sheet of paper. But put in the stove when you read it. Write soon to your good looking Brother up at Edray and tell me all the news.

Yours truly,

Harlow Waugh.

P. S. Please excuse bad writing and spelling composition to. I am coming down soon may be Saturday. I would like to see you tolerably well.

NOTE: Although Uncle Harlow instructed Aunt Lizzie to burn this letter I am glad she did not, because in this one paper alone there are many events and dates about life in the 90's, gatherings, people, and their socials, as seen through the eyes and writing of an 18 year old farm boy.

Dear Sister Lizzie:

We are sorry to learn of your illness and on account of your faithfulness to your church your absence is very noticeable.

We are at this time making our preparation for Rally Day and we could not think of the Sunday School on such an occasion without remembering you especially.

The brotherhood is remembering you in prayer and hopes that you may have an early recovery.

The implicit faith that you have always had in you Lord in time of health as you went about your work in the church and elsewhere, we feel sure, will sustain you in these trying hours.

As we remember you in our prayers on next Sunday we wish you to join us in spirit as we unite our forces to rally to the work that is

"Caleb Knapp married Elizabeth Waugh"

The first authentic record I have is that Caleb Knapp was in Greenbrier County, Virginia, now West Virginia as early as 1787. He paid tax in that year. He died in Greenbrier County in 1829, and his wife Elizabeth (last name unknown) was living in 1833.

Caleb Knapp and his wife Elizabeth had the following children.

James, born about 1790, married 7 March 1816 in Greenbrier County to Laine Hapstonstall.

Moses, born 1791, married Elizabeth Anderson about 1814.

Joshua, (Hardesty's History says born 1793), married Phebe McDaniel on 16 September 1817. Died in Kentucky in 1865.

John, born 27 February 1793 (according to death notice), married 27 January 1818 to Jane Blair (family tradition says Jane Blair, but records say Jane Burgess), he died 8 September 1880.

Caleb, Jr., born 21 May 1798, died ----, married Elizabeth Waugh, born 2 January 1796. "My record shows 1802/Elv). The daughter of Samuel Waugh and Ann McGuire Waugh.

perse." Mr. Waugh said at another time he shot a large bull bison at night when he was unable to see the sights on his gun. One shot was all that it was needed to kill him, he added. He and his brother profited by the experience of Hiram Waugh, the leader, who was an old hunter of long experience on the plains, and he instructed them how to approach buffaloes without scaring them.

The Civil war veteran is a Republican politically. He cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln in the fall of 1861 while in the army in Virginia, soldiers being permitted to vote in camp. He has voted the Republican ticket ever since.

Asked about his famous minister-uncle, Lorenzo Waugh, the aged man said he had never seen him. Some forty years ago when the preacher came back home from the west he preached at Buckhannon, but his father, at whose home the minister was a guest, did not let him know of his presence and he did not know he had preached in Buckhannon until he read about it later in one of the Buckhannon papers. The minister had left on the homeward journey then and never returned to his native state.

Brief allusion to the life of the Rev. Lorenzo Waugh is not amiss here. As stated, he was born August 28, 1808, in Pocahontas county, this state, then Virginia. He attended the schools of his county and in 1832 the Ohio Methodist Episcopal conference received him on trial as a itinerant preacher, and appointed him to the Nicholas circuit in Virginia. In 1835, he was ordained, and transferred to the Missouri conference. He remained there several years and was made an elder.

When the minister's health failed in 1851, he moved with his family to Petaluma, Sonoma county, Calif., where he preached for the first Methodist congregation ever assembled in the Sacramento valley. It is said, he died at his home there in 1898.

The birthplace of the "Gospel of the Poor" was a small village in the mountainous region of the north of China, partly bordering the coast. From early times it was noted for its religious life and for the great number of religious institutions. It was a Buddhist, Taoist, and Confucian center. Wang Yang-ming, the great philosopher, was born in the little town of Wuyang, an oval couple of miles from the coast, and he was an exceptional person. Wang taught that the way to the good was not through books, but through the heart and also through the life. He said that the heart was the source of all knowledge and also the source of all morality. He said that the heart was the source of all knowledge and also the source of all morality. The Waugh family of West Virginia, looks to Pennsylvania as their life-line, as the region of the origin. Some of the early members were here there it all the antebellum era. It is a tradition by many years. James Waugh, a prominent 11th Amendment man of the same name, was a well-known, new-born, in America in 1719, and located in Virginia, probably early Pennsylvania country. His son, James Waugh, Jr., married a totally unrelated McGuire, whose ancestors included a person of 17th and 18th century lineage. They were the parents of a number of sons and daughters, namely, Johnnie, Allan, M. C., James and Samuel. Notable local families, including Ann and John, a son of whom had descendants now scattered all over the country.

James Waugh, 28, was a member in the American revolution. He died in 1912. Among his sons, Lawrence became the first president at the school as a member. Nathaniel became a professor. He was born August 24, 1884, in the same county. John Waugh, another son, was born March 6, 1912, the same year his father died. He was the grandchild of J. Francis Waugh, the buffalo hunter.

Joseph Waugh married Mary Brown in 1840. Born April 10, 1812, in the Newbury county. She was daughter of Jonathan and Jane Woodruff Brown.

Joseph Waugh's wife, Mary
Brown, died January 10, 1862, at the age of 50 years. He died July 10, 1892, aged 79.

A granddaughter of John Bradshaw became the wife of Beverly High Naugh.

About 1780 two brothers, James and John Bradshaw came to America. James finally settled in Kentucky. John Bradshaw, Esq., remained in Augusta County, Virginia, and married Miss Nancy McKee. They settled on the Bullpasture River. After a few years they moved to what is now Pocahontas County, West Virginia, and settled near Humberville. They were the parents of eight children, four sons and four daughters.

James Bradshaw married Isabella Stevens of Greenbrier County, and settled on the old homestead. They had three children that we know about today, John Bradshaw and Franklin Bradshaw. Their daughter Eveline Bradshaw married a Byrd and settled near Falling Springs in Greenbrier County. James and Isabella Bradshaw also had two grandsons, Captain R. M. Bradshaw, a gallant soldier who fell in the battle of Port Republic, and James Bradshaw of McDowell County.

John Bradshaw married Nancy Stevens, sister of his brother James' wife, and settled in the Big Valley between the Bullpasture and Jacksons River. They later moved to Missouri and we have nothing further of John's family.

Thomas Bradshaw married Nancy Williams on Anthony's Creek, and settled on Browns Creek. He was a Botanical physician and died in 1862 at an advanced age in Hunterville. His family moved to Webster County, then to Missouri.

ENOCH LORENZO WAUGH

(William C. Morrison, in Clarke
June-September.)

The buffalo chase of other days is something the modern big game hunter in these parts knows nothing about. Few men living in this state ever engaged in the hunt for the great American bison. Enoch Lorenzo Waugh, 88, retired merchant and farmer who lives in the little hamlet, Vandalla, on mall road 2 out of Houa-cho, Lewis county, is an exception.

Waugh recalls the day when he not only chased buffalo, but killed them and ate their meat. He and his brother, John W. Waugh, now dead, hunted and killed them on the plains of Nebraska more than fifty years ago. As he recalls it, they scored nine to their credit.

Enoch Waugh went west a few years after he had served in the Civil war as a Union soldier and on the plains he hunted as a pastime, particularly buffaloes for the sport of it and for their meat. In that early day there were many men as well as their hides were wanted and were left for the dogs, as he puts it. The meat of the buffalo, he says, was as sweet and tender as any beef could be.

The Waugh family of West Virginia looks to Pocahontas county, this state, as the region of its origin. Some of its early members were born there at a time antedating the American revolution by many years. James Waugh, a progenitor of the American town of the name, came from his native land, Scotland, to America in 1722, and located in Virginia, presumably Pocahontas county. His son, James Waugh, Jr., married Sarah Rebecca McGuire, whose ancestry consisted of persons of Irish and Scotch lineage. They were the parents of a number of sons and daughters, namely, Lorenzo, Allen, Morgan, James and Samuel. Next to Jacob, Rebecca, Elizabeth Ann and Nancy, most of whom had descendants, now scattered all over the country.

James Waugh, Jr., was a soldier in the American revolution. He died in 1812. Among his sons, Lorenzo became the most prominent, as he was a noted Methodist Episcopal preacher. He was born August 2, 1784 in Pocahontas county. Jacob Waugh, another son, was born March 1, 1812, the same year the latter died. He was the grandfather of Enoch L.

triet of West Virginia.

Enoch Waugh married again after the death of his wife, Sarah Brown Waugh. His second wife was a widow named Skutter, whose maiden name was Margaret Homino. He was a man of more than ordinary prominence in community leadership, serving two terms as county assessor, seven years as circuit clerk and many years as justice of the peace. He served as circuit clerk from 1848 to 1873. In addition to his public duties, he found time to preach the gospel according to the Methodist Episcopal faith. There was several children, by the second marriage. He was the father of thirteen all told.

When only a few months past 19, Enoch L. Waugh, enlisted in Battery E, First West Virginia artillery in the Union service, August 12, 1862, which the late Maj. A. C. Moore of Clarkburg, organized at Hockhannon as captain, being commissioned as such September 23, 1862. He served throughout the Civil War as a member of the battery and was mustered out at Wheeling June 28, 1865.

The year after the war Waugh married Miss Mary F. Peets, September 18, 1866. She died in 1904 and a year later, August 26, 1905, he married Mrs. Margaret S. Hornor, of Roanoke, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Fraal, of the Roanoke section.

The aged man has made two trips to the West. He and his first wife went on an excursion trip in the summer of 1871 to Omaha, Neb., and were so taken with the country they moved to Republican City, that state three months later, where they took up a homestead of 160 acres when offered by the government to settlers. Misfortune overtook them and they remained there only long enough to comply with ownership requirements as stipulated by the federal government. Then selling their homestead they returned to West Virginia with the homesteadness of a pair of "kids." They lived in Nebraska about a year and a half.

The second summer they were there when the crops were nearing maturity, a heavy hailstorm literally destroyed them and they became so distressed that they sold out cheap and started on the long journey home. They drove a team of horses all the way from Republican City to Luckhannon with the wagon containing all their worldly goods. The distance

OCTOBER

October haze is on the hills
And quiet country, charming Jane,
Runs perfume, the air distills
An ether anodyne for pain.

October num'd in ancient lore
As eighth month in the calendar
On Isle of Patmos, prophet there
Wrote record of the ten-month year.

And still the name to us means eighth
Month; read, the Latin lays of Rome:
"Tradition is a spirit-wraith
Compared to truth in sacred Tome."

Glorious coloring for the leaves
Mirror in river's limpid flow;
Silently, softly fall and waives
A carpet for the winter's snow.

The stands of corn, like stands of armor
Are waiting for the warriors there
Our mountain men who guard the farms
Against advance of famine year.

A fainter blush, an after glow
Of light, far sky earth meet now rests
Far friend and leaf in autumn poe
As mortal and immortal guests.

Waugh's buffalo hunting party was headed by Miram Waugh, also a Civil war veteran, but not related to the other Waugh and the third member of the party, John W. Waugh. On one of these hunting expeditions, the men became lost in a "fearful" snowstorm and wandered aimlessly about on the Nebraska plains two days and three nights before they were able to find their way home. They were not so very far from their home when the storm overtook them, but before they way they traveled many miles, and would have perished had they not accidentally stumbled into a dugout house, where they spent a part of the third night.

The storm was so terrible, the cold so severe and day and night so dark, almost like a dungeon, that they were almost dead when they reached the dugout. They traveled for three times coming back each time to find a pine they had passed. Finally they turned their backs on the storm, came to a spring they well knew and were able to locate the dugout.
